GALLIPOLIS.

THURSDAY, - - - OCT. 17, 1850.

The Coalition of Abolitionism and Locofocoism Triumphant—Wood Elected.

Judge Wood, the Loco-Abolition candidate is elected Governor of Ohio.
We have not full returns, but sufficient to show that his majority will be large. This result has been brought about by a coalition of the Locos and Free Soilers. There is no disputing this; the returns from Free Soil counties show it. Questions of State policy, as between the Whigs and Locos, had little to do with the election for Governor in counties where the Free Soil vote is considerable. Judge Mum by keeping his abolition notions to himself, and leaving the public in ignorance of his present views in regard to hard money, has succeeded. With members of the Legislature it is different; elected for small districts when their views must be generally understood, the Whigs have gained handsomely.

The Legislature.
The State Journal of Saturday says:

HOUSE.—We will publish a list of members elect on both sides in our next. We now claim 35 Whigs, and think there will be 33 Loco-focos, and 4 special Free Soilers.

SENATE, the same as before reported, 18 Whigs, 16 Locos, and Randall and Sulist.

If the above shall prove correct there is a Whig gain of six in the House, and we lose nothing in the Senate. The Statesman of Friday evening claims one from Dark and Shelby, but a despatch to the State Journal says Lennox, Whig, has fifteen majority. The Whig candidate for Representative is elected by a small majority in Jefferson, and the Statesman threatens to contest it.— The Whigs gain in Jefferson, Franklin, Gallia and Jackson, Coshocton, Guernsey, Cuyahoga, Clinton, Belmont, and Summit. They lose in Licking, Lucas and Henry, and Morgan. We shall publish a correct table of the members of the Legislature next week. The Cincinnati Enquirer (Loco) says:

THE LEGISLATURE.—We give the table, made out by the Statesman, of the returns, as far as heard from,
to the Legislature, with the explanation of that paper. We know of nothing to persuade us to alter Col.
Medary's figures. The Free Soilers evidently hold the balance of power.
The Whigs of themselves are no better off than the Democrats by themselves. Our impression, however, is that a majority of the Free Soilers inclined more from sympathy and polity to the Whigs than to the Democrats.

So they incline to the Whigs sufficient to enable them to elect Thos.
Ewing to the Senate, we shall think their sympathy worth having.

GALLIA COUNTY.—The official vote of this county, which we publish this week, includes the township of Wilkesville with its thirty odd Loco majority, while the strong Whig portion of Racoon township which heretofore voted with us, this year voted with Jackson county. Had our limits been the same as in 1848 we should have given over 500 majority for the Whig ticket.

Bundy receives the following majorities: Gallia 418, Athens, 553, Meigs 328. Jackson county gives Jackson 132, one township excluded from their county. This gives Bundy over a thousand majority in the district. Not much pot metal about that. In all but one township in Jackson county, Burris receives about 75 majority. Cherrington is elected by over 300 majority. Three cheers for the Whigs of Jackson and Gallia, says the State Journal.

LATER.—The following is the official figures of Jackson Co., for Representatives for the two counties: Burris, 1102
Cherrington, 867
This gives Cherrington 204 majority in the district.

Bring in your chestnuts, boys, and get your money at the store of D. N. Allard. Several new advertisements appear this week to which we direct the readers attention.

A Loco-foco Circular to the Fairfield in Gallia county.
The following is a correct copy of a circular scattered among the Loco-focos of our county just previous to the election. The one before us was sent to a certain good Loco-foco in the lower part of the county.— That part of the circular which follows the names of the committee is in writing while the balance is printed.

One word as to the charge that the Whigs had circulated reports as stated under first and second. No charges of this kind were circulated by Whigs; it is a mere Loco-foco trick.
The charge of Abolitionism first appeared in this circular together with the contradiction. We do not accuse the young men whose names appear as a Central Committee—they are merely put forward to be used, and to screen those whose wilful and corrupt lies, just before the election, dates back to a time when these young men were puking in their nurse's arms.

If the proof of Bundy's and Cher-rington's abolitionism was so easy to be obtained, why was this circular only to be circulated on the morning of the election? The truth is that this charge is false and those who circulated it knew it was. But here is the document.

Circular.
As some of the leading Whigs of this county have been active in circulating certain false reports concerning our candidates for office, it becomes our duty, as the Democratic Central Committee, by their authority, to deny and rectify the same.

First.—It is reported that Hiram G. Daniel voted for and supported Martin Van Buren at the election of 1848.

Second.—It is reported that E. A.
Jackson is an Abolitionist.

We are authorized to state, by these gentlemen, that the above reports are totally false.—Mr. Daniel voted for Lewis Cass; and Mr. E. A.
Jackson always has been a most bitter enemy to Abolitionism in all its forms.

Furthermore, we say, and stand prepared to prove, by their own words and actions, that Cherrington and Bundy are both strenuous advocates of the Abolition doctrine, and that they are ready to favor and maintain the same if they are elected this fall.

Democrats be on your guard.— False reports are being circulated, to the injury of our glorious and triumphant cause, therefore turn out, one and all, and if convenient, go in the morning, so that you may see to the absentees before evening.

V. M. FIORO,
JOHN SANNS,
D. H. GATES.

Dem. Cen. Com. for Gallia Co.
DEAR SIR.—These are not to be circulated until the morning of the election, and then with great care so as not to offend any Whigs who may be favorable to our candidates.

J. E. Holcomb, Esq., has furnished us with census returns from the following townships.

	1850.	1840.
Springfield	1218	952
Racoon	1518	1610
Cheshire	1409	791
Morgan	1127	744
Gallipolis	2221	1413
Addison	932	692
Huntington	1312	971

Racoon as given above of course excludes that portion attached to Jackson county. Mr. H. is now engaged in the townships in the lower part of the county. We trust the citizens down there will extend to him every facility in the line of his duty.

Court of Common Pleas.

This court will continue its present session through this week at least.— Thus far but one civil suit, requiring a jury, has been disposed of; this was the suit of Eri Harrington vs. Anselm Northup. It was an action of trespass for shooting a horse, causing its death.
Verdict, guilty—damages $65. Nash and Lewis for plaintiff; Cushing and Piror for defendant.

The criminal trials are the following: State of Ohio vs. John Pearce; assault and battery on George Withers; verdict, not guilty. Perry and Hanna for State; Cushing and Coombs for defendant.

Same vs. Horace Curtis. The indictment charged the defendant with breaking into the jewelry shop of Thos.
Wilkinson, in this town. Verdict, guilty. Perry and Nash for State; Cushing and Coombs for defendant. A motion has been made for a new trial.

Same vs. R. H. Rupe and John Lee, assault with intent to kill; pleas not guilty. The examination of the case commenced Tuesday morning and went up to Wednesday noon, had not been decided. Perry for State; Nash and Bradbury for defendants.

Quite a sensible shock of earthquake was felt a Cleveland on the 1st.

The returns before us from this district show the following majorities:

	Welch.	Daniel.
Gallia	469
Meigs	327
Athens	394
Hocking		332
Lawrence	250 unofficial 1440
	332 1108

We recollect that a pair of Vans, soon after the Whig nomination for Congress, were each pledging their counties, Athens and Meigs, for the largest majority in the district. Gentlemen of the Messenger and Telegraph, look at the above figures and acknowledge yourselves beat by the gallant Whigs of Gallia.

Congressional Elections.

DISTRICTS.	MEMBERS ELECTED.
1. Hamilton	David T. Disney, Loco.
2. Butler &c	Lewis D. Campbell, Whig.
3. Montgomery &c	Hiram Bell, Whig.

10. Franklin &c	Charles Sweetser, Loco.
11. Richland &c	George H. Busby, Loco.
12. Athens &c	John Welch, Whig.
13. Morgan &c	James M. Gaylord, Loco.
14. Muskingum &c	Alexander Harper, Whig.
15. Belmont &c	Wm. F. Hunter, Whig.
16. Coshocton &c	J. Johnson, Independent.
17. Jefferson &c	James Cabell, Loco.
18. Wayne &c	David K. Carter, Loco.
19. Summit &c	E. Newton, Free Soil W.
20. Ashland &c	J. R. Giddings, Free Soil.
21. Lorain &c	N. S. Townsend, Ab. L.

The result for Congress is, 9 Whigs, 9 Democrats, Giddings, Free Soil, Townsend, Abolition Loco-foco, and Johnson Independent.

The Whigs lose Finck in the 12th district by defection in Washington county. Gaylord received only 120 majority in Perry and 137 in Morgan. Washington county could easily have elected Finck against these majorities.

Deaths on the Plains.

Below we give the names of all Ohioans who have died on the Plains during the summer, as reporter at

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE CHEROKEE.

Sacramento not Burnt—Peace Restored—The Mines Highly Productive—Great Wealth at Hum-bold Bay.

Some noise was being made in San Francisco about the Raelajo route, and it was supposed that the Northern and Republic would land some 200 passengers there, who preferred that route to the one by Panama.

The news of the death of President Taylor reached San Francisco on the 24th ult. It was received with every demonstration of sorrow; and on the 30th, appropriate public funeral ceremonies were performed.

The Sacramento difficulties have been settled, by the dispersion of the squatters. The report brought by the last steamer, of the burning of Sacramento, proves to be unfounded. In the different meles between the citizens and rioters, there seems to have been killed on the part of the former, Sheriff Mc-Kinney and Mr. Woodland; wounded, Mayor Bigelow and Capt. Radford, and of the squatters, George W. Henshaw and Madison Kelly were killed. Allen, the keeper of the house from which the shot was fired, fled, after being dangerously wounded. He was pursued and captured. His wife had been dangerously ill for some time, and died from excitement during the affray.

Politically and socially all seems to be going on smoothly in California. The accounts from the gold mines are highly encouraging. One man, at one haul, took out a forty pound lump of pure gold, on the Ya-ba, about fourteen miles from Marysville.

The gold mines in the vicinity of Humboldt's Bay, the Alta says, are perhaps at the present time fully as rich as the most profitable deposits in California yet known.

On the Trinity, Shaste and Kala-mah Rivers, thousands are at work with extraordinary average success, and new diggings are almost daily opening.

The regular mails are on board of the Georgia.

There was no cholera at the 15th mus, or along the coast.

As to the Markets, a San Francisco paper says:

"Since the steamer of the 15th, we notice a great apathy in our market generally, which can be accounted for by the large stocks of goods on hand, and the scarcity of money.
Lumber still continues very abundant and scarcely averages the price of freight. We heard of one sale of rough lumber, afloat, as low as $15.50 per M."

THE SACRAMENTO RIOT.—We furnish such information relative to the disturbances in the Sacramento city as is supplied in the papers.

From the Pacific News, August 18th.

The arrival of the Gold Hunter last night so eagerly looked for, brought news far more favorable than was anticipated. From the Sacramento papers of yesterday we gather the following synopsis:

Everything was quiet. Lieut.
Gov. McDougal returned from Benicia on the Gold Hunter, with 50 stand of arms and 1500 cartridges.

The city council have appointed a committee with power to procure all arms and ammunition necessary for the preservation of the quiet and safety of the city. The acting Mayor also had been ordered to offer a reward of $1000 for the apprehension and conviction of any of the principal leaders in the riot, and $500 for any who were with arms aiding and abetting.

Dr. Robinson has been arrested and placed in confinement on the oath of several gentlemen that they saw him deliberately aim at the Mayor.

An Irishman named Caulfield, accused of a similar act with regard to the Mayor and Mr. Woodland, has also been arrested.

The following are the names of the killed: Mr. Woodland of the citizen party; of the squatters, Maloney, Jesse Morgan, late of Holmes county, Ohio, and one person unknown.

Wounded—Major Bigelow, J. H.
Harper, Mr. Hale, and a young daughter of Mr. Rogers. The only squatter wounded was Dr. Robinson.

The squatters are reported as concealing themselves or fleeing from the city.

A letter was found in Dr. Robinson's tent, after his arrest, in his own handwriting, from the tone of which it is evident that the final result to force to maintain possession of their land was deliberately meditated by the squatters. After speaking of the decision of the county judge, the proceedings of the meeting and other matter connected with the dispute he says:

"What will be the result? Shall I be borne out in my position? On whom can I depend? How many of those who are squatters will come out if there is a prospect of fight?— Will the Sheriff take possession as he has promised, before 10 o'clock, A. M.? How many speculators will fight? Have I distinctly defined our position in the bill? Will the world, the Universe and God say it is just!
—&c., &c. Will you call me rash if I tell you that I took these steps to this point when I could get but 25 men to pledge themselves upon paper to sustain me, and many of them I felt was timid! Such was the case "This morning I was early on my feet, silently and quietly visiting my friends, collecting arms, &c. Our manifesto appeared in the paper and in bills early, and the town is aroused.

Nothing is thought or talked of but war. About two hundred men assembled on the disputed territory, and most of them sympathized with us. A few, however, were spies.— We chose our commander, and enrolled such as were willing and ready to lay down their lives, if need be, in the cause.

"About 50 names could be obtained. I managed, by speeches, business, &c., to keep the spectators and fighters mingled in a mass, all unarmed, so as to let no one know but all were men of valor and ready to fight. While thus engaged, the Mayor appeared and addressed us from the saddle—not ordering us to disperse, but advising us to do so. I replied, most respectfully, that we were assembled to injure no one, and to assail no one who left us alone.— We were on our property, with no hostile intentions while unmolested.
After he left, I, with others, was appointed a committee to wait upon him, and state distinctly our position so that there could be no possibility of mistake. He said he should use his influence, as an individual, to keep any one from destroying our property, and told us the sheriff had just told him that the executions from the court had been postponed.
We returned, and after reporting, and making some further arrangements for another meeting if necessary, we adjourned. I told the Mayor we should not remain together if no attempt was to be made to execute their warrants, but I told him if in the meantime a sheriff or any other person molested a squatter, we should hold him responsible according to our proclamation. From this position we could not be driven, although we knew it was in violation of the regulations of the State.
We were prepared to abide the result.

"It is said that a writ is made out for my arrest, as a rebel, &c. It so it will not probably be served at present."

At the first fire the Mayor, who showed himself through the whole a brave and determined man, was wounded very dangerously. One ball glanced his cheek, another passed into his thigh, one tore off his thumb and shattered the bones of his hand, and a fourth produced the most serious wound of all—the ball passed through the body in the region of the liver.

Since the favorable reaction last night, good symptoms have continued to prevail. He has very little pain, and rests and breathes easy.— Sanguine hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Maloney, the leader of the squatters, was an Irishman. He has formerly lived in Vermont. He was one of Riley's company in Mexico who deserted from the American army and fought with the Mexicans.— After the Americans took him prisoner, he was branded on the cheek with the letter D, and allowed to go free. He has since, either by an additional burn or in some other way entirely obliterated the D, but a scar remained at his death on his face.

THE WHEELBARROW MAN.—This well known and indefatigable individual, who started on a "tramp" across the plains to California with a wheelbarrow, in which to carry his "plunder," has arrived at Sacramento City in safety. He left his wheel-barrow at Fort Hall, and attached himself to a company, thinking, very correctly, that however easily he might progress on the broad and level prairies, the Sierra Nevada might prove an ugly customer. That man will get rich, if it is possible; mark it. His energy will "put him through."

Pennsylvania Election.

The Pittsburgh Chronicle of the 11th says of the election in Pennsylvania:

We have not yet received anything like satisfactory accounts, upon which to form a tolerably correct conclusion; but enough has been received to justify us in stating that the Democrats have elected their Admiral to the State ticket, by from Ten Thousand to Thirteen Thousand majority; Thirteen, or perhaps Fourteen members of Congress, beside a majority of from Sixteen to Seventeen in the Legislature. This secures the Democrats a United States Senator, for six years, from the Fourth of March next, when Senator Stur-geon's term expires.

Throughout the entire State, apathy hung heavily upon the rank and file of the parties, and prevented even a decent turn out at the polls.

The new Fugitive Slave Law creates a good deal of excitement at various points throughout the North.
There are indications that the law, if enforced as it has been in New York, will be resisted. We shall publish this bill in full next week.

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

Four Days Later from Europe.

New York, Oct. 9.—A. M.

The American mail steamer Atlantic arrived here about 10 o'clock this morning, with four days later advices from Europe. She brings one hundred and twenty-eight passengers. Her dates from Liverpool are to the 25th ult.

She left Liverpool at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, the 25th of September, and has had very boisterous weather during the passage.

Some damage has been done to her bulwarks, &c., but none that will prevent her being put in condition to leave on her return trip at the appointed time on Saturday next.

The steamer experienced a severe gale on the second day out, which continued to blow with much violence for more than four days. A portion of the wheel houses and some of the upper works were carried away. The ship breasted the storm gallantly, however, and proved herself a sea vessel of the first class, as well as a most rapid steamer. She had strong head winds during the whole passage, notwithstanding which it was made in about fourteen
